The Cooley Collection

The Cooley Distillery was founded in 1987 near Carlingford in County Louth. In its short life time it has already scooped European and World Distiller of the Year 2009 along with a host of other awards for their whiskeys.

Whiskey Price

Connemara Peated Single Malt €5.00

Connemara is the only brand of Irish whiskey to revive the old tradition of using peated barley to give the whiskey a distinctive smokey taste.

Connemara Cask Strength €6.90

The cask strength Connemara is bottled at over 57% alcohol and is a true reflection on how whiskey would have been made in days gone by.

Connemara 12 year old €8.75

The 12 year old version of Connemara captures the essence of quality from the master distiller, not quite as peaty as the regular Connemara.

The Tyrconnell Single Malt €4.75

Named after a race horse that won at odds of 100-1, this is an exceptional whiskey packed with rich citrus flavours.

The Tyrconnell Madeira Finish €8.75

Voted best Irish Whiskey by Jim Murray in his 2008 Whiskey Bible, need we say more?

The Tyrconnell Port Finish €8.75

This was due to be voted best Irish Whiskey in the same book but then he tried the one above, so it will have to settle for second place!

The Tyrconnell Sherry Finish €8.75

Often overlooked because of the success of the other finishes, but in no way less spectacular, excellent spicy woody flavours.

Greenore 8 year old Single Grain €5.00

Distilled from a mash of corn, this whiskey is a light refreshing and easy to drink.

Greenore 15 year old single grain €9.75

Limited to only 5000 bottles this unique whiskey has fantastic depth and flavour.

Lockes 8 years old Single Malt €5.50

A little cracker of a whiskey with light citrus flavours as well as coffee fudge characteristics.
